HELP FOR OUR HEROS is a way Pennsylvania Freemasons and others could show their support for the U.S. Military. Over $1 million in donations has been given to help service men and women and veterans that are primarily from Pennsylvania. Please visit www.pagrandlodge.org/heros for more information.

Below is a list of many ways HELP FOR OUR HEROS has helped support our heroes:

- Calling cards for Pennsylvania soldiers deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan and to injured soldiers in hospitals
- Financial support for baby showers for military mothers – to – be hosted in conjunction with March of Dimes, providing many supplies needed for a baby's first year of life.
- Telemedicine equipment for troops' children between Dover Air Force Base and Jefferson University Hospital.
- Support for Wreaths Across America and Moms for Marines.
- A Great Adventure amusement park for children of deployed soldiers.
- Christmas parties for troops' families and their children with special needs.
- Projects at the Veterans Group Home.
- Child day care for children of deployed soldiers.
- Support for Project HERO at Horsham, which provides adaptive bikes for soldiers with injuries or disabilities.
- Mentors for Veterans Courts.
- Household repairs for military families.
- Financial assistance for military members facing costly medical bills and job loss.
- Reconstruction of service member's home after it was destroyed by fire.
